

Quidang

5-8 English Syllabus

All English assignments will be posted via Google Classroom daily.

- Students are responsible for checking Google Classroom.
- All English presentations and agendas will be linked and updated daily by 8am.
- Students can ask questions via email.
- Students will submit all work via Google (email, shared with me, Classroom)

What types of assignments can we expect from English?

- Assignments will include: articles with comprehension questions, online and interactive journaling, creative writing, project-based learning, grammar Google Forms and worksheets. Again, any necessary materials will be included with the assignment in the form of a direct link on GC.
- Some assignments may take more than one day. I will include a timeline of how to break up any longer assignments and what due dates will be.

Frequently Used Technology

- Google Slides: (Agendas, notes, online interactive journaling and creative writing)
 - I do use this one frequently
- Zoom (video explanations of writing assignments, projects)
 - Zoom meetings and chats will be done to explain and clarify directions, as well as check-ins
- Newsela (informational articles to summarize and comprehensive questions)
- No Red Ink (online grammar practice)
- Flipgrid (platform for posting video assignments)
- Padlet (quick writes, idea sharing, cooperative learning)

Other Helpful Grammar Online Resources

- Grammarly
- Jeopardy Labs
- Khan Academy
- Shmoop

How will my work be graded?

- Most assignments will include rubrics that are given to students when the project/assignment is introduced and explained.

- Students are expected to work on an English assignment for the usual amount of time allotted during the normal school day - about 40 minutes.
- Assignments will be graded and posted weekly by Friday. Please continue monitoring PowerSchool for updates on grades.
- Email will be checked frequently from 8am to 3pm daily. I may respond less frequently after 5pm.

Thank you!

Ms. Quidang